YMCA Groups Keep Busy During Easter Vacation

Easter activities are booming at the Torrance Family YMCA this week, highlighted by a number of camps and worship programs.

Fifty-five older boys are spending four days on the beach at Punta Banda in Baja, California. Led by James Smith and Paul Egelund of the YMCA staff, the boys are enjoying surfing, swimming, beach fun, Easter worship, and campfire high jinks.

One hundred and thirty-six boys and their dads spent a weekend at Big Rock Creek, camping along a racing stream. Most of the boys, 9 to 12 years of age, hiked to the rim of the Devil's Punch Bowl. Others spent the time fishing and rock throwing. Dads mostly spent the time holding down fallen logs.

THE BIG HORNS Gra-Y Club is spending the week in Lyons Camp near Ojai, under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Anderson.

All girls of the YMCA participated in a Craft Carnival and invitation luncheon at the Y. The program included a display of craft projects; a cookie decorating contest; and a paper bag dress fashion show.

High school co-eds attended two breakfasts to hear ministers explain modern day problems in light of the scriptures.

YMCA MEN are invited to participate in the YMCA's annual Good Friday Devotional Breakfast tomorrow morning from 8 to 9:30 a.m. at the Biltmore Bowl. They will hear C. Davis Weyerhaefer, prominent lumberman, and Nadine Conner, who will sing "The Lord's Prayer."

Y-Indian Guides have two events on Saturday, April 13, the first of which is a Family Day of Fun at Griffith Park. The boys will hunt for Easter eggs; hike to the top of a small peak; explore Travel Town; hold a picnic, and fish for crawdads in Fernell.

At 6:30 that evening, dads and sons are taking part in a swim at the Westchester YMCA.

ALL PERSONS are invited to the YMCA's Victory Breakfast to be held on Saturday, April 13, from 7 to 8:30 a.m., at the International House of Pancakes. The local "Y" hopes to reach its $50,000 goal that morning.

ALL PERSONS are invited to the YMCA's Victory Breakfast to be held on Saturday, April 13, from 7 to 8:30 a.m., at the International House of Pancakes. The local "Y" hopes to reach its $50,000 goal that morning. Many YMCA youngsters started the vacation period by attending a TV show, "King For A Day" in Hollywood. Even though noisy, and decked out with feathers, none of the local Y members were selected for the honor, however.

Chapel Theatre Continues Run of 'Devil's Advocate'

Chapel Theater's production of "The Devil's Advocate" will continue for three more weekends with sellouts expected for several performances.

Taken by Dore Schary from a novel by Morris L. West, the production stars Tom Lowry in the role of Monsignor Meredith, and Maxine Dessau as Nina.

Other actors include Lyle Smith, Fred J. West, Walter Reese, Noel Shire of Torrance, Dennis Moran, Rudi Medina, Connie Pollock, Ed Gangel, and Jack Daly. The play is under the direction of Sam Manu and Rudi Medina, who doubles as stage manager.

Working backstage are Carolyn Schroeder, Diane Berrera, Jim Sena, and Betty Schroeder. Lighting and sound effects are handled by George Bingham and Grover Palmer. Set dressing was effected by Phyllis Palmer with background scenic painting created by John Vincent Mason.

Reservations may be made by calling the box office at FR 2-9636. Admission prices are $1.50 Fridays and Sundays and $1.75 Saturdays, with the curtain rising at 8:30 p.m.

Chapel Theater is located at 4164 Pacific Coast Highway.
